

Brief Summaries of all approved HKCA Business Plans (2015-2017)

1. Building Committee

Objective 1: Unify the membership

- Survey BC Members for “Topics of Discussion”
- Membership Drive
- Publish BC’s achievement yearly

Objective 2: Improve sub-contracting system including information sharing of subcontractors works

- Encourage Member to use registered subcontractor only
- Establish outstanding subcontractors/workers list

Objective 3: Influence Government Procurement System

- Identify problem and meet relevant government departments to identify possible solution
- Industrial enhancement by reviewing existing statutory requirements and industrial practices
- Industrial Visits

Objective 4: Building Committee Tasks

- To pursue for more reasonable government regulation
- To persuade government to adopt better tender award system and consistent levels of spending on small / medium / large size projects
- Review Pay For Safety / Environmental Scheme for public works contracts
- To persuade CIC to condemn Unfair Contracts Conditions from Client Bodies
- Macau Sub-group
- Promote Corporate Social Responsibility to uplift industrial image
- To persuade HA to review the PASS system
- Adoption of Innovative Construction Technologies

2. Civil Engineering Committee

Objective: To forester a safe, harmonious and sustainable industry environment for CEC Members to flourish and excel in their chosen areas of specializations

1. Follow up previous actions taken, and keep the following items on the agenda

- To persuade DevB to adopt more equitable “Allocation of Risk”
 - To persuade DevB to adopt a more balance Tendering Assessment System on Quality / Sustainability / Price
 - To achieve an equitable DB Contractors’ Performance Reporting System
2. Public Engagement Campaign
- Symposium on the Construction of the 3rd Runway Systems
 - MTR – CEC Safety Initiatives for Tunnel and MTR Works – driving safety initiative together with MTR to ensure the construction areas becomes a safer place for work
3. Client – Contractor Partnership Program
- Engage with Works Departments / Quasi Government organizations on informal basis to foster working partnership for CEC Members. Attention will be focused on:
- Airport Authority to adopt more equitable “Allocation of Risk” for the 3rd Runway Systems Projects
 - Assessment and payment of MTR Projects based on contractors’ performance
4. Optional Campaigns in Promoting the Industry to the Society
- Research study on “Eco-city for Hong Kong”

3. Piling Contractors Committee

Objective 1: Pursuing better business environment and level playing field in the piling industry

- Maintain close and good working relationship with the appropriate authorities and stakeholders to push for stable and sustainable piling workload, enhance procurement system, streamline procedures and working conditions

Objective 2: To promote good practice in piled foundation works

- Exchange experience and knowledge with counterparts of global cities
- Agree on focus of experience / knowledge sharing
- Develop good design and construction practices together with appropriate authorities

4. Site Investigation Contractors Committee

Objective 1: Pursuing better business environment and level playing field in the GI industry

- Maintain close and good working relationship with the appropriate authorities and stakeholders to push for stable and sustainable GI workload, enhance procurement system, streamline procedures and working conditions

Objective 2: Promoting good practice in GI works

- Review/upgrade the Driller's Manual
- Develop Good Practice and Safety Handbook

Objective 3: Developing a succession plan for GI industry

- Liaise with CIC on various training courses for drillers and drilling labourers, and statistics for trade test certified drillers in the GI market
- Attraction plan for the youngsters to join the GI industry

5. SME Committee

Objective 1: Unify the membership

- Regular meetings for discussions in issues regarding to SME
- SMEC members gathering
- Provide SME related updates
- Inviting new members
- Monitoring SMEC work

Objective 2: Enhance members' knowledge on specific skills to strengthen the competitive power in construction industry

- Professional training course
- Seminars
- Visiting tour

Objective 3: Establish a construction resources platform to increase co-operating opportunities, and also to support environmental work and recycling waste materials

- Establish a website platform for members to exchange building and construction resources
- SME members trial
- Encourage HKCA members to use the trading platform
- Monitoring the data base operations

Objective 4: To reflect opinions to government departments and organizations in order to enhance the development of construction industry

- Security Service
- Group Insurance Scheme
- SME Financing Guarantee Scheme
- Review the levy threshold
- BIM system
- Break down construction project to NW1

6. Environmental Committee

Objective 1: Pursuing betterment of our members' environmental performance and streamlining compliance of environmental regulations and non-statutory requirements

- Actively reflect our members' views to relevant Government Department and Officers on promulgation and/or enforcement of statutory regulations and requirements
- Participate through the Construction Industry Council Committee on Environment, Innovation and Technology to reflect views in industry issues and put forward suggestions
- Maintain close and good working relationship with the appropriate authorities and stakeholders to push for better environmental performance
- Participation in various joint liaison groups with the appropriate authorities and stakeholders

Objective 2: Sustaining environmental promotional programme in collaboration with all stakeholders within the construction industry

- Proactive participation in various green campaigns with the Government and stakeholders and support to drive improvement on low carbon and clean energy construction in Hong Kong
- Promote and keep abreast of new environmental initiatives and green technology for use in construction industry
- Continue organize the "Hong Kong Construction Environmental Awards" in collaboration with Environmental Protection Department and stakeholders

Objective 3: Nurturing an enduring green culture in the construction industry

- Continue organize environmental conference, seminars, lunch talks, etc. with the themes evolved and shaped by the industry's interests and needs
- Promote the latest environmental information and knowledge sharing to members

7. Health and Safety Committee

Objective 1: Pursuing betterment of our members' safety performance and streamlining compliance of safety regulations and non-statutory requirements

- Actively reflect our members' views to relevant Government Departments and Officers on promulgation and/or enforcement of statutory regulations and requirements
- Participate through the Construction Industry Council Committee on Construction Site Safety to reflect views in industry issues and put forward suggestions
- Maintain close and good working relationship with the appropriate authorities and stakeholders to push for better safety performance
- Participation in various joint liaison groups with the appropriate authorities and stakeholders

Objective 2: Sustaining health and safety promotion programme in collaboration with all stakeholders within the construction industry

- Set safety targets that our working environment would reach to the standards of global best practice
- Proactive participation in various safety campaigns with the Government and stakeholders and support to drive improvement on better workplace safety
- Promote and keep abreast of new safety initiatives and technology for use in construction sites
- Continue organize safety award programmes in collaboration with the Government and stakeholders

Objective 3: Inculcating a safety culture at all levels in the construction industry

- Continue organize safety conference, seminars, training activities etc. with the themes evolved and shaped by the industry's interests and needs
- Promote latest safety information and knowledge sharing to members

8. Young Members Society

Objective 1: Nurture young person for the construction industry

- YMS introductory talks to freshmen studying in tertiary education institutions during orientation periods

Objective 2: Promote and enhance young members' understanding of the construction industry

- Local Site Visit
- Summer Internship Programme
- Overseas Study Tour

Objective 3: Assist young members' personal professional growth and career development

- Recruitment Fair
- Career Talk

Objective 4: Improve public recognition of construction personnel

- Community Services
- Newsletter
- Promotion Video and Launching

Objective 5: Foster common values amongst young members

- Annual YMS Event
- Meet with Industry's Leaders