Friday 18 May 2018

Assembly Hall, 4/F, North Tower, The Salisbury - YMCA of Hong Kong, 41 Salisbury Road, Tsimshatsui, Kowloon

The 7th IOSH Hong Kong annual safety conference and 18th AGM will be held at the Salisbury - YMCA of Hong Kong. The conference will provide an excellent platform for both local and overseas professionals to exchange ideas and share their experiences on the initiatives and efforts for advancing OSH through innovation – enhance, collaborate and influence.

Event overview

Innovation becomes an increasingly important component of workplace safety and it can definitely bring radical change in tackling workplace safety problems.

What's in it for you

The conference will provide an important forum for the meaningful exchange of good practice and innovative ideas on the initiatives and efforts for advancing OSH, and an excellent opportunity to share ideas, network with colleagues, make new contacts and learn from others in the profession.

A CPD Certificate of 3 hours will be issued to each participant who has attended the entire conference.

Who should attend

The conference will be relevant to executives, professionals and managerial staff, particularly OSH professionals and those responsible for safety and health at work. Prior seat reservations are required on a first-come-first-served basis.

What you need to know

Please enrol through the following on-line registration:

http://www2.ioshhongkong.com/Online_Reg/EventDetails.php?Event=311

The fee for the conference is HK$200.00. IOSH members and members of supporting organisations are entitled to a discounted price of HK$100.00 and HK$150.00 respectively.

IOSH members are invited to attend the Annual General Meeting of Hong Kong Branch immediately after the conference to hear about the branch's priorities and plans for the year ahead, and to see the new branch committee voted in.

IOSH is the Chartered body for health and safety professionals. With more than 46,000 members in over 120 countries, we're the world's largest professional health and safety organisation.

We set standards, and support, develop and connect our members with resources, guidance, events and training. We are the voice of the profession, and campaign on issues that affect millions of working people.

IOSH was founded in 1945 and is a registered charity with international NGO status.

Hong Kong branch was founded in 1999, and is one of the leading health and safety professional bodies in Hong Kong with more than 770 local members shouldering the same mission of IOSH. Its members are passionate about protecting people and are working to make sure that people are at the heart of health and safety. The Branch has been establishing significant connections and collaborations with government bodies, institutions, trade and labour unions and academia to instil the core value of health and safety in Hong Kong people.
